Agency overview

The Crown Solicitor's Office (CSO) is the largest provider of legal services to the NSW Government and its agencies, and the sole provider of legal services in all matters which are regarded as being core to Government functions. The CSO exists to be the NSW Government's most trusted legal advisors. The core aims of the CSO are to deliver high-quality, cost-effective legal services, provide exceptional customer service to the NSW Government and its agencies and foster a culture of continuous improvement in the way we work.

The CSO, headed by the Crown Solicitor, is a Public Service Executive agency related to the Department of Communities and Justice under the Government Sector Employment Act 2013. For more information, go to www.cso.nsw.gov.au

Primary purpose of the role

Provide executive support to two or more Practice Group leaders in the administration and management of their specialist legal teams and the teams' administrative staff to ensure that business objectives are met and that solicitors are fully supported in the delivery of legal services to clients.

Key accountabilities

- Provide administrative support to the Practice Group leaders, including preparing staffing submissions and providing management reports to monitor and assess performance and system compliance to support and contribute to the practice group's structure, staffing, performance management, service provision and compliance.
- Manage the administrative support staff in the practice groups, regularly monitoring the level of support and quality of services provided to maximise productivity and ensure achievement of service standards.
- Provide guidance, support and advice to administrative staff to ensure that the objectives of the group are understood, provide feedback on performance and develop staff to ensure standards of excellence are achieved.
- Develop and implement procedures in consultation with the relevant Practice Group leader, to ensure that service standards are met and business risks are minimised.

- Co-ordinate monthly billing and client reporting for practice groups and work with solicitors in the provision of special reports to meet specific requirements of clients.
- Foster and maintain positive relationships with clients and key stakeholders both internally and externally and actively deal with any issues in a professional manner.
- Provide advice and recommendations to the
- Practice Group leaders on operational matters relating to the administrative support function, implementing and driving change impacting on the legal support function within the practice group.

Key challenges

- Balancing resources given the need to meet competing demands and high volumes of work whilst also driving a more commercial focus in a public sector work environment.
- Promoting a culture of client service and teamwork among legal support staff given the need to build and maintain a high-performing and effective legal support staff.
- Keeping abreast of changes affecting the business focus and priorities of the CSO given that administrative approaches and procedures need to respond to and prepare for these changes.
