Agency overview

Australian Museum (AM) is located on the homelands of the Gadigal people. The AM acknowledges and pays respect to the Gadigal people as the custodians of the land, sky and waterways, paying respect to Elders past and present.

The Australian Museum (AM) operating within the NSW Department of Enterprise, Investment & Trade cluster, is the first museum in Australia and was founded in 1827. The AM provides access, engagement and scientific research to increase our understanding of natural history and culture, particularly of the Australasian region. The AM holds more than 22 million objects of biological, geological and cultural collections and develops programs, exhibitions and school and community education initiatives onsite, online and offsite.

The AM mission is: To ignite wonder, inspire debate and drive change.

The AM vision is: To be a leading voice for the richness of life, the Earth and culture in Australia and the Pacific. We commit to transform the conversation around climate change, the environment and wildlife conservation; be a strong advocate for First Nations' culture; and continue to develop world-leading science, collections, exhibitions and education programs.

For more information, visit the website.

The AM supports a diverse workforce and promotes applications from all ages and genders, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, culturally and linguistically diverse groups, the LGBTQIA+ community, veterans, refugees and people with disabilities.

Primary purpose of the role

The Senior Pasifika Collection Officer, First Nations assists the Pasifika Collections & Engagement Manager, by coordinating the daily operations for the Pasifika Collections at the Australian Museum which are located across several AM sites. This role is responsible for contributing to high standard museum operational standards and requirements for the AM's Pasifika Collections in accordance with First Nations-led museum practices, including but not limited to the implementation of Indigenous Cultural & Intellectual (ICIP) principles and cultural protocols.

The Senior Pasifika Collection Officer manages the engagement, interpretation, research, tracking, logistics, storage and housing, movements, and handling aspects of the AM's Pasifika Collections. The work is largely carried out by direct reports (2x Pasifika Collection Officers) under the supervision of this role holder. This work includes, but is not limited to, coordinating with direct reports on the reproduction of images of collection items for internal or external purposes and provision of information/drafting assistance for attributions, copyright and commercial arrangements.

This role involves coordinating (directly, or via direct reports) appropriate access for contractors, Pasifika community members and approved external stakeholders, researchers and if applicable interns/volunteers (as appropriate and approved by the Pasifika Collections & Engagement Manager.

Key accountabilities

- Develop and maintain a comprehensive knowledge of the AM's Pasifika Collections, which involves upholding cultural and community protocols, including ICIP considerations.
- Coordinate the workflows of the 2x Pasifika Collection Officers within the Pasifika Collections & Engagement team, in accordance with the decisions and instructions of the Pasifika Collections & Engagement Manager. This includes conducting 1:1 meetings with direct reports to distribute and monitor tasks, providing mentoring and professional development support in accordance with the objectives and interests of the Pasifika Collections & Engagement team.
- Provide assistance to the Pasifika Collections & Engagement Manager with the compilation of information/data and the preparation of reports; developing and implementing operational strategies, plans and policies for the Pasifika Collections and assist with communicating these policies across the Museum; and liaising with the Senior Collection Officer, First Nations regarding any Pasifika-related public enquiries received in the First Nations email account and then triaging received public enquiries within the Pasifika Collections & Engagement team.
- Manage the protection and maintenance of objects within the Pasifika Collections across the various AM sites, ensuring their integrity so that objects are conserved for future generations. Along with direct reports, facilitate access to the AM's Pasifika Collections, maintenance of museum collection record keeping, and provision of information updates and statistics for reports as required. This role may be required to act as an object recipient and courier on behalf of the AM.
- Contribute to increased awareness of the Pasifika Collections and related AM exhibitions and programs, ensuring interpretation is accurate and appropriate. This includes through content development and communication, preparing research, participation in projects and programs, and other forms of public engagement to relevant Pasifika communities and other stakeholders. This role will liaise with the Wansolmoana Connect Officer to assist in helping facilitate the Wansolmoana Connect Program.
- Organise and participate in regular meetings with other AM teams to liaise on Pasifika Collections matters and ensure their compliance with First Nations Division collections practices and protocols, in accordance with the Pasifika Collections & Engagement's Managers decisions and instructions.
- Support the work of the Pasifika Collections & Engagement team and First Nations Division by undertaking other relevant duties as directed (consistent with skills, competency and training), through assisting the Manager, Pasifika Collections & Engagement on a range of administrative duties relating to collections matters. This would include delegating tasks to direct reports, including but not limited to servicing contracts, working with relevant project officers, raising purchase orders and processing invoices, etc.

Key challenges

- Supporting the Pasifika Collections & Engagement as well as liaising on the activities of direct reports in a fast paced and complex environment, and deliver multiple collection activities and targets across sites in line with agreed collection management standards, timeframes, budgets, and the need to maintain accuracy and attention to detail.
- Ensuring ethical and culturally appropriate processes are followed by internal and external stakeholders when accessing the AM's Pasifika Collections in all transactions and dealings to maintain the AM's professional reputation. Ensure statutory and legislative requirements are adhered to and implement effective risk management procedures.
- This role may require the role holder to carry out physical tasks within the parameters of the AM's Workplace Health & Safety (WH&S) requirements, which may include manual handling, repetitive bending, kneeling, twisting and/or squatting, and working at heights. Adhere to all obligations, responsibilities, and legislative requirements under current WH&S legislation and regulations, ensuring all areas under supervision are monitored for WH&S risks and hazards and are reviewed regularly, escalating issues promptly to the Manager, Pasifika Collections & Engagement.
