Agency Overview

The Museum of Applied Arts and Sciences sits at the intersection of the arts, design, science and technology and plays a critical role in engaging communities with contemporary ideas and issues. Established in 1879, the museum includes the Powerhouse Museum, Sydney Observatory and the Museums Discovery Centre. The Museum is custodian to over half a million objects of national and international significance and is considered one of the finest and most diverse collections in Australia.

Organisational Context of Position

The Curatorial, Collections and Exhibitions Department, encompassing Curatorial, Strategic Collections and Production works cooperatively to develop, manage and conserve collections, conduct research, develop, source, deliver, interpret and maintain long-term and temporary exhibitions. The Department provides content to the Museum's ambitious and multi-faceted programs and experiences. The Department initiates and proactively explores ways to expand and disseminate knowledge about the collection.

Strategic Collections is one of three teams reporting to the Director, Curatorial, Collections and Exhibitions and encompasses Registration, Conservation and Library.

The Registration unit manages the Museum's collection and collection-based information according to professional museum standards, and NSW regulatory requirements, including documentation, processing, access, inward and outward loans, storage, movement and transport of objects, and creating and maintaining records for these. The unit has a major responsibility for coordinating all audit, valuation, insurance, collection copyright, and legal matters relating to the collection; and participates in exhibition development including planning, exhibition preparation and installation and dismantling. Registration also manages the Museum's archives both institutional and acquired, servicing internal and external access and managing the archives management database.

Primary purpose of the role

The MAAS Project is the relocation of the Powerhouse Museum and part of a wider government project for the creation of a new arts and cultural precinct in western Sydney. The Assistant Registrar will be a part of a team working on the preparation of the collection currently stored at Ultimo for digitization and relocation to the Museums Discovery Centre.

Key accountabilities

1. Assist the Manager and Registrars with relevant operational planning processes and policy development and contribute to the implementation of the Museum's strategic plan.
2. In consultation with the Manager and Registrars build and maintain external stakeholder relationships, including museums and galleries, government departments and other organisations to advocate for MAAS, to develop business networks and to build awareness of the MAAS programs.
3. Assist with the implementation of the Museum's collection and collection-based information systems according to professional museum standards, and NSW regulatory requirements, including, but not limited to, collection management, documentation and cataloguing, processing, access, acquisitions and de-accessions, inward and outward loans, storage, movement and transport of objects, and creating and maintaining records for these.
4. Ensure statutory and legislative requirements are adhered to and effective risk management procedures are in place.
5. Ensure adherence to a high level of collection management practice and procedures and a culture of optimal external and internal customer service.
6. This position may be required to act as an object courier on behalf of MAAS.
7. Assist with ensuring the safety, security, location control and maintenance of objects on display and on storage.

General Requirements

- Work in an interdisciplinary manner across project teams and Museum initiatives and contribute to the conceptualization and realization of MAAS' vision, mission and strategic direction
- Adhere to all obligations, responsibilities and legislative requirements under current Work Health & Safety (WHS) Acts and Regulations, ensuring all areas under supervision are monitored for WH&S risks and hazards and are reviewed regularly
- Ensure MAAS is positioned as the leading museum of applied arts and sciences
