Agency overview

We ensure young children get the best start in life by supporting and regulating the early childhood education and care sector. We are the largest provider of public education in Australia with responsibility for delivering high-quality public education to two-thirds of the NSW student population.

School Performance – North/South division

School Performance – North/South division leads and directs the operations of more than 2200 NSW public schools to maximise the academic achievements of all students and create a culture of success, learning and a desire to achieve, underpinned by innovative, adaptive and supportive strategies that also supports the quality of teaching and educational leadership at the school level. The division is responsible for the achievement of excellence in educational leadership, professional practice and school performance in preschools, infants, primary, secondary, central and community schools, specialist and comprehensive schools, specific purpose schools, intensive English and environmental education centres. The overarching goal of School Performance – North/South division is to achieve the best possible outcomes for the students in our public schools from preschool to year 12.

The School Performance – North/South division maintains very clear lines of sight between the authority and accountability of principals, the supervision and support of directors, the strategic leadership and direction of the executive director, and the achievement of the targets of the government's priorities and the department's strategic plan. The executive structure is underpinned by strong professional relationships and evidence-based accountability at every level.

Primary purpose of the role

The Director, Educational Leadership has a key strategic role in supporting the continuous improvement of principals in NSW public schools to ensure that the work of schools is evidence-based and responsive to the needs of all students from preschool to year 12.

The Director, Educational Leadership provides differentiated line management support to principals in their pivotal responsibility for leading and managing their school. The Director will work with the Principal to ensure evidence-based decision-making is focused on improving student progress and achievement by improving the quality of teachers and through effective school planning, self-assessment and change management processes.

The Director will develop professional relationships with principals that are collegial, constructive, informed and insightful. Directors will spend significant time with individual principals to gain a deep understanding of the challenges and student and staff improvement opportunities at each school.

The Director, Educational Leadership implements effective performance and development processes and provides constructive feedback to support principals in their continuous development. They coach and/or mentor principals in order to build their instructional leadership skills and management practices. They contribute to a principal's professional learning and support the development of effective and sustainable leadership practices.

The Director, Educational Leadership provides policy advice, supports the principal in the management of contentious issues, and facilitates the provision of timely support in the management of students with complex and challenging needs.

The Director, Educational Leadership is line managed by the Executive Director, School Performance and is part of a collaborative executive team. Directors, Educational Leadership are expert educators who work as system leaders both within and across networks to establish a culture of continuous improvement in the principals with whom they work in a support and accountability framework.

Key accountabilities

- Provide leadership and direction to principals in their crucial school leadership and management role ensuring high standards of student progress and achievement are achieved in line with Premier, State and departmental education priorities. Review the evidence to ensure principals are meeting their key accountabilities and provide feedback to guide continuous improvement.
- Collaboratively support principals to analyse school and system data to inform evidence-based decision-making and resource allocation for improved student progress and achievement. Ensure principals use a high-impact, evidence-based approach to school planning, self-assessment and external validation against the School Excellence Framework. Establish a strategic approach to the analysis of system and school-based data to identify high value-add schools and teachers and share this expertise to build the capacity across the network.
- Implement an effective Performance and Development Framework underpinned by clear and constructive, personalised feedback on performance to ensure principals are well-supported to achieve key accountabilities for the effective leadership and management of the school.

- Contribute directly to principal's professional learning to build their instructional leadership, management skills and leadership attributes to enable them to be highly effective educational leaders and to make sound local decisions which maximise the progress and achievement of students.
- Recruit and induct new principals, collaboratively develop aspiring school leaders, and contribute to their professional learning by facilitating the development and maintenance of professional networks across communities of schools to enhance collaborative practice around school improvement.
- Provide advice and direction for principals in the management of complex operational and educational school-based issues. Manage high level contentious issues to ensure efficient and prompt resolution of issues of educational, industrial, legal and political significance.
- Liaise with senior officers, principals and specialist staff to ensure the timely and responsive provision of educational and corporate services to schools to support the delivery of quality teaching and learning, and school management.
- Establish, maintain and enhance highly effective relationships with key stakeholders to ensure productive working relationships, identify opportunities to work together on programs and initiatives and resolve sensitive or contentious issues for the benefit of schools and their communities. Engage in the development and implementation of localised whole of government initiatives.
- Provide strategic advice to the department on future requirements of educational provision.

Key challenges

- Building the capacity of principals to lead and manage in the context of local decision making and authority.
- Ensuring that high expectations of student and staff performance underpin all actions in schools.
- Developing a culture of evidence-based accountability at every level.
- Resolving contentious issues and disputes at a local level through consultation and mediation with principals, staff and other concerned parties.
