Agency overview

Legal Aid NSW is the largest legal aid agency in Australia, comprising a Central Sydney office and 23 regional offices in metropolitan and regional centres across NSW and a number of specialist services and advice clinics. It was established under the Legal Aid Commission Act 1979 as an independent authority to assist economically and socially disadvantaged people to understand and protect their rights in the legal system. People with disabilities, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, women and children, Indigenous people and people with mental illness are some groups who may experience difficulties when enforcing and defending their rights.

Legal Aid NSW provides legal advice, information, minor assistance and legal representation in many areas of law. Legal Aid NSW also provides alternative dispute resolution services, community legal education programs, and publications on legal issues.

Primary purpose of the role

Provide a broad range of executive, secretarial and high level administrative services to support the Director Criminal Law and the Deputy Director Criminal Law to achieve organisational objectives.
