Agency overview

The Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD) is the department dedicated to growing primary industries and supporting regional economic development to deliver long term benefits to the state. Our focus is to protect, support and develop our primary industries, mining sector, and regions.

DPIRD brings together Agriculture and Biosecurity; Fisheries and Forestry; Local Land Services; NSW Resources; Regional Development and Delivery; the Regional Growth NSW Development Corporation; NSW Public Works and Soil Conservation Service.

We have nearly 5,000 employees, with almost 80 per cent of us living and working in regional NSW.

Local Land Services (LLS) is an Executive Agency. It provides quality, customer-focused services to landholders and the community across New South Wales. This regionally-based organisation brings together a wide range of service and advisory functions including agriculture, biosecurity, natural resource management, land management, biodiversity, emergency services and private native forestry.

Primary purpose of the role

The role delivers services to farmers and the community to help them manage our landscapes to be healthy and productive including the provision of natural resource management and agricultural productivity information, advice and extension services; implementation of land management legislation and assessment of related applications; management of major natural resource management and agricultural productivity projects; delivery of emergency planning, preparedness, response and recovery services; development of major partnerships and collaboration; negotiation and resolution of complex natural resource management and agricultural productivity issues; provision of leadership and support to small project teams; monitoring, evaluation, reporting and improvement of programs and projects and contribute to strategic planning.

Key accountabilities

- Provide timely, effective and high quality frontline advisory and extension services to rural landholders and stakeholders, partners and industry groups.
- Manage natural resource management and agricultural productivity projects ensuring best-practice governance in line with LLS objectives and initiatives.

- Collect and collate data, analyse information and provide accurate and appropriately balanced advice, reports and recommendations on complex natural resource management and agricultural issues.
- Write reports and plans to a high level.
- Develop major partnerships and support collaboration to address complex natural resource management and agricultural productivity issues.
- Lead project teams and facilitate implementation of the Local Land Services Act 2013, Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016 or other legislative responsibilities.
- Fulfil identified emergency management roles in local and State level operations as directed by appropriate delegated managers.

Key challenges

- Balancing a range of competing priorities and projects in an environment of high workload, rigorous accountability, strict deadlines and high community expectations.
- Managing conflicts between natural resource users and negotiating solutions to complex natural resource management and agricultural productivity issues.
- Interpreting and applying relevant legislation, policy and procedures and performing field work such as inspections and assessments in all conditions and terrains, including in emergency response situations.
