Agency overview

The Department of Regional NSW was formed in 2020 as a central agency for regional issues. The Department is responsible for building resilient regional economies and communities, strengthening primary industries, managing the use of regional land, overseeing the state's mineral and mining resources and ensuring government investment in regional NSW is fair and delivers positive outcomes for local communities and businesses.

Primary purpose of the role

The Senior Analyst leads the development of evidence-based policy frameworks that deliver on high profile government priorities, and provides strategic advice to senior decision-makers in a time sensitive environment. The Senior Analyst is a source of economic and policy leadership, driving the development of new solutions at all stages of the policy cycle from research and analysis through to implementation and evaluation.

The Strategy & Economics Team is highly collaborative, working closely with a range of stakeholders across all levels of government and industry, and the Senior Analyst will lead and foster these networks.

Key accountabilities

- Drive the delivery of policy services including problem identification, evidence collation, policy development, economic and options analysis, consultation, identification of success measures and evaluation strategies, and strategic planning to develop cost-effective, targeted, evidence-based industry, innovation and regional economic development policy within tight timeframes.
- Develop new, innovative policy proposals and ideas including using evidence to justify the problem, options analysis and preparation of cabinet submissions.
- Provide high-level advice related to policy and regulatory reform and the development and delivery of changes to strategic policy, legislative change and operational programs.
- Maintain awareness of emerging economic and industry related policy issues, nationally and internationally, approaches of other jurisdictions, and advances in academic and economic thinking.

- Assist the stewarding of policy and related documents through government approval processes, negotiating with government representatives
- Maintain systems to ensure robust comprehensive reports and documents, that withstand expert external scrutiny for all recommended policies and proposed intervention measures
- Maintain strong links with key central agencies, stakeholders, academic institutions and other jurisdictions to ensure the Division is developing best practice and relevant policy solutions, leveraging a whole of government approach and reducing red tape, costs and other industry impediments

Key challenges

- Effectively using current knowledge of the extensive range of data, information, legislation and policy settings affecting regional development in NSW and making recommendations on a range of complex and/or politically sensitive alternatives.
- Formulating and completing analysis that adequately informs and drives effective evidence-based policy design.
- Establishing rigorous processes and driving multiple policy issues affecting regional development in NSW.
