Agency overview

Legal Aid NSW is the largest legal aid agency in Australia, comprising a Central Sydney office and 28 regional offices in metropolitan and regional centres across NSW including the two satellite offices located at Walgett and Bourke and a number of specialist services and advice clinics. It was established under the Legal Aid Commission Act 1979 as an independent authority to assist economically and socially disadvantaged people to understand and protect their rights in the legal system. People with disabilities, from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, women and children, Indigenous people and people with mental illness are some of the groups who may experience difficulties when enforcing and defending their rights.

Working in partnership with private lawyers, Legal Aid NSW provides legal advice, information and minor assistance and legal representation to eligible people in many areas of law. Legal Aid NSW also provides alternative dispute resolution services, community legal education programs, and publications on legal issues.

Your Voice: Children’s Out-of-Home Care Advocacy Service

Your Voice: Children’s Out-of-Home Care Advocacy Service (Your Voice) is a specialist team in the Family Law Division of Legal Aid NSW. Your Voice provides family law, civil law, advocacy and casework assistance to highly disadvantaged young people who are out-of-home care (OOHC) or have had an OOHC experience.

Primary purpose of the role

Ensure Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children and young people are informed of their legal options and assist in addressing their unmet legal needs.

Assist legal officers and administrative staff to help develop, coordinate, facilitate and implement outreach services, community legal education sessions and engagement with Aboriginal communities.

Assist the Solicitor in Charge, Senior Project Officer and Solicitors on local community issues that may arise.

Key accountabilities

- Assist the Solicitor in Charge; Senior Project Officer, Solicitors, the Manager Aboriginal Services and other relevant staff to facilitate outreach services and community legal education sessions for Aboriginal communities.
- Make connections with relevant Aboriginal community members, Elders, clients and service providers as required
- Meet with Aboriginal organisations and communities and attend cultural and community events to promote the services of Legal Aid NSW.
- Provide support to solicitors involved in crime, civil and family law matters with Aboriginal clients, including in communicating with clients and the coordination of matters.
- Making referrals within Legal Aid, the Aboriginal Legal Service and to other legal and non-legal services for clients
- Provide guidance and feedback to Legal Aid staff on ways to work with Aboriginal children and young people and to improve the workplace by increasing cultural awareness of staff in consultation with the Aboriginal Services Branch
- Provide support for non-Aboriginal clients if required operationally noting that support for Aboriginal clients is the priority for this role

Key challenges

- Responding to the complex legal needs of Aboriginal clients within a legal aid context and ensuring that a holistic response is provided to those needs.
- Overcoming perceived barriers between Aboriginal communities and Legal Aid and building trust between the two.
- Managing conflicting priorities between client engagement, coordination of outreach, community legal education and other responsibilities for the role.
