Overview

The NSW Department of Education serves the community by leading the provision of world-class education. The Department protects young children by regulating preschool and long day care providers. Once children move into school, we provide them with a world-class primary and secondary education. We also work to advance the wellbeing of Aboriginal people.

Located with the Department of Education (DoE), the Early Childhood Education (ECE) Directorate administers several programs and funding streams designed to meet the goals of the National Partnership Agreements on Universal Access to Early Childhood Education and the National Quality Agenda, with a focus on improved participation of children from Aboriginal and low income backgrounds.

As a regulatory authority under the national regulatory arrangements for early childhood education and care, the Directorate regulates approximately 5,500 services across the state. For services regulated under the National Quality Framework, this includes a process of assessment and quality rating by regional staff against the seven quality areas that make up the National Quality Standards.

Primary purpose of the role

The role assists with the implementation of risk-based regulatory and compliance functions to ensure the quality of early childhood education services, the safety of children and to foster continuous improvement in the sector.

Key accountabilities

- Undertake quality assurance and rating processes for early childhood education services in accordance with the national regulatory framework.

- Visit services to assist with the monitoring of compliance, identification of potential risks, investigation of non-compliance with regulatory requirements and the development of recommended actions to ensure the safety of children and the provision of high quality service.
- Assist with the implementation of risk-based regulatory activities in accordance with the national regulatory framework to improve outcomes for children, to ensure children's safety and to promote continuous improvement in the quality of services.
- Assist with the implementation of engagement, communication and capability development strategies to enhance the knowledge and capability of the workforce and to support continuous improvement in the sector.
- Participate in cross-team groups and projects to ensure that frontline knowledge and experience is captured in the development of policy and in strategic projects.
- Prepare and maintain accurate and timely records in the Directorate's systems to ensure the quality and availability of records for reporting and other purposes.
- Assist with the preparation of quality evidence-based written reports, submissions and correspondence.

Key challenges

- Working in a high volume, sensitive and at times adversarial environment.
- Maintaining an up to date knowledge of early childhood education policy and regulatory frameworks.
