Agency overview

The Department of Regional NSW was formed in 2020 as a central agency for regional issues. The Department is responsible for building resilient regional economies and communities, strengthening primary industries, managing the use of regional land, overseeing the state's mineral and mining resources and ensuring government investment in regional NSW is fair and delivers positive outcomes for local communities and businesses.

The NSW Department of Primary Industries (NSW DPI) supports the development of profitable primary industries that create a more prosperous NSW and contributes to a better environment through the sustainable use of natural resources.

DPI Fisheries, a Branch of NSW DPI, is responsible for administration of the Fisheries Management Act 1994 and the Marine Estate Management Act 2014. The primary objective of the Fisheries branch is to deliver on expectations relating to both economic growth and careful stewardship of our aquatic resources. The Branch leads NSW fisheries and aquaculture industry management, development and conservation through research, policy and regulatory compliance to foster sustainable and economically viable commercial, recreational and aboriginal fishing and aquaculture sectors. The Branch manages the protection of key fish habitats and marine biodiversity, threatened species, oversees fish stock conservation.

Primary purpose of the role

Undertake a range of project activities to support the assessment, planning, strategy, communication and community engagement of marine estate, marine parks and aquatic reserves projects.

Key accountabilities

- Provide project support, including preparation of reports and briefs, maintaining project documentation, and implementing and monitoring project plans to achieve project outcomes.

- Undertake activities to contribute to the development, implementation and review of threat and risk assessments, marine estate management strategy, and management plans for marine parks and aquatic reserves.
- Undertake community engagement and consultation activities including organising community forums, developing materials, and tools, mail outs and promotional activities, collating and analysing community and stakeholder feedback and submissions to inform planning and decision making.
- Develop and maintain databases including stakeholder contacts, publications and images, feedback and submissions from engagement processes, and documents and other records.
- Contribute to the development of communication and community engagement materials including newsletters, notifications, submission forms, fact sheets, discussion papers, website content and updates, signage and brochures as required.

Key challenges

- Timely delivery of project tasks and the ability to re-prioritise work in response to emerging issues or policy.
- Maintaining expertise across communications initiatives and community engagement in cooperation with project leaders
- Working in a high volume environment supporting multiple project tasks.
