Agency overview

Legal Aid NSW is the largest legal aid agency in Australia, comprising a Central Sydney office and 28 regional offices in metropolitan and regional centres across NSW and a number of specialist services and advice clinics. It was established under the Legal Aid Commission Act 1979 as an independent authority to assist economically and socially disadvantaged people to understand and protect their rights in the legal system. People with disabilities, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, women and children, Indigenous people and people with mental illness are some groups who may experience difficulties when enforcing and defending their rights.

Working in partnership with private lawyers, Legal Aid NSW provides legal advice, information and minor assistance and legal representation to eligible people in many areas of law. Legal Aid NSW also provides alternative dispute resolution services, community legal education programs, and publications on legal issues.

Primary purpose of the role

This role provides high quality advice, minor assistance and casework service to disadvantaged communities. Conduct an effective legal practice. Comply with Legal Aid Commission Act, policies and practice management standards and undertake all related administrative and case management activities.

Key accountabilities

- Providing an efficient and effective legal service to clients in accordance with legislation and directions, policy, guidelines and practice standards.
- Determining applications for legal aid under delegated authority and consistent with the Legal Aid Commission Act, policy and guidelines and/or submitting applications for Legal Aid to the Grants Division.
- Effectively utilise Legal Aid NSW electronic case management/tracking system and database.
- Contributing to development and ongoing review of legal aid policies and guidelines, including contributing to law reform initiatives through providing feedback as requested on issues raised and/or documents distributed.
- Organising and presenting information sessions for current and potential clients and conducting community education as required.

- Assisting with the preparation of printed promotional materials and/or information booklets and pamphlets as required.
- Keeping up-to-date on legal developments and procedures and identifying training needs and attending training to maintain professional standards and retain a practising certificate.

Key challenges

- Being able to communicate with, take instructions from and effectively represent a wide range of people including people from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, those who may be distressed, have a physical or intellectual disability, come from non-English speaking backgrounds, or have problem behaviours such as drug or alcohol addictions, when the legal concepts involved are complex and difficult for the client to understand.
- Maintaining and enhancing professional competence, keeping abreast of legal developments, changes in Legal Aid policies, systems, guidelines and practices and community needs.
- Adapting to new systems and technology which have a significant impact on the legal practice
